Important but no Pentagon Papers

It's a fascinating look at how Russia had there fingers \tentacle in our election. Although it does not directly name Trump as activity seeking their help Manafort, Page and Flynn look pretty guilty. It's understandable why Bannon was POed .Those who love the Donald will point out that he was out of loop. Haters will still find him loopy. His sexual habit which are back in news with pornstar payouts will not effect his trolling fans. For them Don cheating on MT right after Barron born. Sad

Barbara Defratis says

Well, I am now up to 79% through the book, probably could have finished it, if my cat did not call my reading --Kitty Neglect Time. Other than that my assessment of the book still stands--this is the person who should have been arrested instead of being even permitted to run for office!!

Kevin Reyes says

VERY INTERESTING!

A GREAT synopsis of the big dossier on Trump - Russia collusion and key members on all sides discussed. It reads like a spy, nonfiction novel!

Sandy Baxter says

Great.

Eleanor C. Burdick says

Understanding Trump

Exactly a truthful attempt at how Russia was able to indoctrinate Trump and his constituents into helping Putin "wave" his hand over Trumps design's of reaching into Russia and savoring something Special that he wanted to experience in a Country that basically looked down on him intellectually!

Martha F. Shean says

It should cause problems.

There is definitely collusion and blackmail options. Trump definitely is at fault. Too many of his team are involved with Russia.

Anthony W. Noblett says

Blech, definitely not a read for pleasure

This is a series of intelligence reports by a proven professional with well-placed contacts in Moscow, contacts who had shown themselves reliable in past cases. Simple as that. It's hardly likely to all be true, given the variety of sources and the various levels of evidence. But it seems broadly credible because of how it was done and by whom. Repeatedly calling is "fake" or "discredited" is simply whistling in the dark. To say it can't be believed because it was paid for by Trump's opponents is wrong-headed. It ignores Steele's professionalism, treating him like a venal politician instead of a trained MI6 agent with high standards of research and a reputation to maintain. (I myself am an academic with strong personal views who has learned how to set those views aside and base my conclusions on the evidence, even when that evidence is painful or contradicts what I might wish. All professionals learn to do this.) And such criticism also conveniently ignores why Steele was hired to look into a Russian connection in the first place. For good background on the Steele dossier, read Luke Harding's "Collusion".

Dossier vs Record (same thing)

With so many redactions, this report would have been written better and had more substance. Overall I find it interesting and informative. It seems to allude to the fact that Donald Trump was a part of the ring, one of the bosses, idiots. Manafort was a puppet of Trump's, until Trump got tired of him. The only reason Putin kept Trump was because he needed him.

Sheila Dabiri says

PRESIDENT SHITHOLE TRUMP IS GUILTY

I always knew that PRESIDENT SHITHOLE TRUMP and his team were crooked. I knew, as did most intelligent Americans, that TRUMP, HIS TEAM, AND PUTIN were behind the Wiki leaks. I tried to tell friends who supported Trump that what was being reported as being in the leaks was untrue. Now, after reading this, I have no doubt how far this TREASON goes. I found out that Shithole's attorney was/is one of the top criminals involved with passing/receiving information with KREMLIN AND PUTIN,. He is also a huge player in the cover-up of TRUMP, MANAFORT, and others involved with the planning and instrumentation of the ENTIRE CORRUPTION OF THE UNITED STATES of AMERICA AND OUR 2016 ELECTION.

I really wish that we as citizens and voters in this great country had been informed of the depths of INVOLVEMENT, CORRUPTION, COLLUSION, AND TREASON BY DONALD TRUMP, HIS FAMILY, HIS LAWYER, AND HIS CAMPAIGN STAFF AND ADVISORS HAD WITH PUTIN AND HIS ADVISORS BEFORE WE HAD TO VOTE IN THE 2016 ELECTION.

I recommend this to anyone who is looking for the TRUTH into what happened in our 2016 Presidential Election. You will be as disgusted as I was.

Paula J. King says

Very interesting.

Unfortunately, the info here cannot be confirmed at the present time. But it certainly sounds plausible and entirely possible given the very corruptable Donald Trump. He's been dealing with the Italian mob for years. There is no reason to believe that he would hesitate to deal with the RUSSians for their support in attaining his goals.

Keith Olsen says

Not A Book!!

I wish I read this before it was tortured by TV talking heads. It might have been more exciting for me.

Andy Caffrey says

Stunning revelations about #TraitorTrump and his conspiracy to steal the U.S. presidency with the Russians. Trump paid for the hacks of the Democratic party emails. The distribution of the hacked DNC emails during the convention was Carter Page's idea. Trump's going to hang for this.

Trump's attorney Michael Cohen was his chief liaison with the Kremlin. Cohen flew to Prague in August 2016 to clean up Manafort's kick-backs from the Ukraine president and Carter Page's meetings with the Kremlin in Russia.

Trump is also a sick bastard who requested the hotel room where Obama stayed so he could have prostitutes perform a urination show on the bed where Obama slept. He also was a frequenter of sex parties in Russia.

Think this must be preposterous? Well, read this dossier yourself, then. It's only 34 pages long.

Every American should read this. Now the entire Republican party is engaged in a conspiracy to obstruct justice. So, what should we Americans do when an entire party elected to the federal government is a conspiracy of traitors to overthrow and dismantle our democracy?

One answer is to elect me to Congress! Please check out my web site and contribute today at andycaffrey.org.

Collusion detail

Interesting but the context with other evrnts seems to be lost; maybe Mueller and company will unearth the full set of events!
