One element of my 2018 Summer Reading Challenge was to read a 'choose your own adventure' book. My son got this one for Christmas, and since I'm also a fan of Gravity Falls, I figured it fit the bill perfectly. And I was right - the twins' personalities come through in the book, and the situations they found themselves in were just as crazy as the ones on the TV show. A very entertaining read.

This was just so much fun! Doing all the routes (3 main ones that split up in many little ones and then come back in the end). I think my favourite would be the Medieval one.

The last one in Gravity Falls books, though considering one ending, I am hoping that sequel will really come true and isn't just a false message (I would be terribly sad if it was).

The book is all about finding the one time-key. The key to ultimate treasure. The key can be found in 3 places, so this book has 3 main routes, Medieval Times, Future, Wild West. Of course, you can also pick to stay at home, but then the story is just over. Each route eventually connects to the ending part. There are lots of endings to be found, good and bad ones, and it was so much fun to just find them all and see what happens in each one of them. Some are just death (it isn't said as much, but you can guess that if you get engulfed in Dragon flames that one just doesn't survive that), others are them getting stuck forever and ever, then there are ones in which they just give up, or stay at that time-part. And then there are more endings even beyond that. Believe me, you will never get bored with this one.

I loved the 3 routes, and I loved how each of them was a complete story. As I said at the beginning the Medieval one was definitely my favourite. Followed by Wild West, and then the Future. The best part of the Future was definitely the race.

There are also cameos from other characters, either because of Gravity Falls stuff happening, or because they have a counter-part in that era.

Mabel and Dipper, and of course Blendin are having the adventures of a life-time, and I just had a big laugh at all they found and all they encountered.

It was quite a journey to get through all the routes, luckily I had a chart ready, my boyfriend and I love making those for these kind of books. And this way I couldn't get lost or lose my place in where in the book I was.

There is also art/illustrations. I loved those, they are the art also used in the tv-show.

This book was definitely awesome, I laughed, I cheered, I groaned (at puns), I choose my way through this adventure! Yay for Gravity Falls, yay for Mabel and Dipper.

I would definitely recommend this book to everyone. Be sure to watch the show as well though, as there are some spoilers to the show, but also regarding the character Blendin.

This was a lot of fun. The book is full of the classic "Gravity Falls" charm and humor, with a self-awareness that's hard to resist. With the three main stories, each with dozens of path choices within, this book is a LOT of story content. This isn't one of those kids' books you'll breeze through in an hour. That said, it feels like a quick read just because it's so fun and fast-paced. Bonus: original artwork to go with every choice you make.

In this choose your own adventure story, Dipper and Mabel team up with Blendin Blandin to find the greatest treasure of all time – the Time Pirates' Treasure. A series of choices will lead the reader and the team to either the future, medieval times, or the wild west. The team faces bandits, deranged miners, dragons, knights, and the Time Pirates themselves in this crazy, non-canon tale.

I really love Gravity Falls it was one of my favourite shows when it was still on, so I jumped at the chance to experience some more adventures with Dipper and Mabel. The best part of this book was that there really were just a ton of adventures to go on. Unfortunately I am not crazy about choose your own adventure stories because they're just a pile of stress and confusion for me, but I think this is great fun for younger readers.

The whole adventure is really fun. I liked the options that were given, and I read every single path and every single option. There weren't any that were significantly better than others, it was consistently good across the board. I think my favourite might have been the future stuff just because a lot of funny stuff came out of that.

I do recommend this book to fans of the series, I'll definitely be passing it along to my friends.

Madeleine Murphy says

This book is very good and a fun choose-your-own -adventure story! There is also a lot of death. I laughed a lot at this story and all the antics the Pine twins get up to.

I saw this on display at the library and I just had to check it out. It was cute! Not as good as the actual show, of course, but some of the jokes and whatnot really fit in with the general feel.

The main thing that excited me was that one of the endings had a coded message, and when I worked it out there was a weblink leading to an AXOLOTL (ehhh?) and a mysterious, cryptic poem about Bill Cypher and that's worth the price of admission tbh (maybe spoilers? kind of? not really)

So yeah. Come for the wacky time-travel adventures, stay for the axolotl and strangely sad cryptic poetry.

Also there's an ending where Dipper marries a donkey. So, there's that.

I didn't finish the book. I didn't finish the first section. Too much like today's cartoon: mind numbing.
