Callie Stillion says

I enjoyed this book. When Charles and his mom go to pick the Bean, Miss Penny shows them Molly, her dog. Molly is misunderstood, and so it's hard. She helps a mother cat with her babies, and Charles thinks that Molly's hurting the animals. But she isn't. Rottweilers are very misunderstood. They are said to be hurtful to people, because they are used as guard dogs. But Aunt Amanda says, 'There's not a such thing as a bad dog, just bad people that raise them.' Soon it's agreed, that Miss Penny would keep Molly with her. And when Penny's gone, Jesy, the person that runs a farm that the Bean and his class goes to, will help and Gail, Daniel, also known as Spidey, and his brother, Aaron, will help. Molly got a good home after all!
