Book Monitor says

I enjoyed this anthology of short stories and novellas. My favourite was the Shadowlands novella about Rainie and Jake but I am an acknowledged fan of this series and author. The other writers were new to me. I surprised myself by really liking the story of Azogath and Lilliana. This was not something I would normally have chosen but was a well written and sweet romance, obviously with a paranormal twist. The other two stories here were readable and likeable without wowing or engaging me to the same extent. This is not to say I wouldn't read these authors again just that I felt they were more championship than premier league. I would say if you like erotic romance and well written sex scenes give this anthology a whirl. It's a great way to spend a few hours. A good Read.

Neisha Edwards says

Really great tales. I wanted more.

April says

Loved this series of tales.

TooManyBooksNotEnoughTime says

Wasn't all that crazy about Azagoth, and that is what drew me to this bundle, but the three other powerhouses more than made up for it, even though I had already read the Cherise Sinclair one. Can never get enough of her stories, and now I'm a new fan of LRJ.

Andrea Anderson says

So I mainly read this book for the Demonica book, but ended up enjoying all 4 stories. They were really great and I will be looking into the series to see if I want to start any new ones

Viviane says

I really enjoyed the first and last story in this book. As with all collections every story is different and some appeal more than others. That isn't a bad thing at all. I had much fun and am glad I picked it up.

Roberta says

You can never go wrong in reading the Dark Nights.

Piper says

Lovely mix of stories - each one really enjoyable.

~Anita~ says

Not surprisingly Lexi Blake and Cherise Sinclair wrote the best stories in this bundle for my taste.

Shanelle says

The last book in this book was very boring and real rubbish but the first 2 were really good.

Eleonora says

Cherise Sinclair's story was perfect: Jake and Rainie were so tender and hot together ...the other stories didn't work for me. The male characters weren't true Dom but true dominant idiots.

Sarah says

Loved reading about the shadowlands masters and mistresses.

I found myself struggling to like some of what Rainie thought of herself but when her past became clearer I had better understanding of her inadequate feelings.

Loved HEA

Joy Boutwell says

Four authors give you four enjoyable stories. Nice book to read.
