Arts and Ideas William Fleming

Intended for courses in Western Humanities, this best-selling text chronologically explores the major styles as they appear in painting, sculpture, architecture, literature, music, and philosophy from antiquity to present. Using lively anecdotes, Fleming shows how the styles are linked together by common purposes, themes, and ideas.

high-school level, not being of the depth I thought.

Thom Dunn says

cpw 1955.

Lauren says

Diego Velazquez is my favorite. Raphael, School of Athens, is a close second.

Lorri says

I love art history and this book seems to have everything. I actually found it at a yard sale for $0.50! Best deal ever!

Elissa says

I reread my college humanities book to prepare myself for a trip. It is chock full of great art, literature, philosophy, and music. I love it!

Trevor says

Go find any edition of this book and begin to read. You will be a better person because of it.
