Elizabeth's Valentine Francine Pascal (Creator) , Molly Mia Stewart , Ying-Hwa Hu (Illustrator)

Identical twins Elizabeth and Jessica Wakefield can't wait until Eva, the new girl in their second-grade class, arrives from Jamaica. When Elizabeth is picked to show Eva around school, the two become friends, and Jessica begins to feel left out. After all, she and Elizabeth are supposed to be best friends.

To get back at her twin, Jessica ignores Elizabeth and pretends to keep secrets from her. She even pretends she has a new best friend. Elizabeth can't understand why Jessica is being so mean. Everything's a mess, and it's up to Eva to help Elizabeth and Jessica become friends again!

Ella says

I personally loved this book and its about a girl named Eva and she's a new student and so Elizabeth hangs out with her and Jessica starts to get jealous

Robyn says

I barely remember this story, but I liked Eva, & thought she was cool.

Tara Calaby says

There's a new student in Mrs. Becker's second grade class! Eva Simpson has just arrived in Sweet Valley from Jamaica and all of the children are eager to meet her. Unfortunately, Jessica is stuck at home with the flu on Eva's first day, so she has to miss out on the excitement. On the strength of her social studies mark (uh, why?) Elizabeth is chosen to help Eva settle in, much to the displeasure of Lila, who thought she was the obvious choice, having once visited Jamaica on vacation.

When Jessica returns to school the next day, Eva is sitting in her chair and Elizabeth seems more interested in the new girl than her twin. Jessica, egged on by Lila, decides that she doesn't like Eva at all.

(view spoiler)

I think this is the best SVK book so far, with genuine drama and high stakes. The moral of the story is a decent one as well.

I can't really remember the actual story, but I remember picking this book up as a 6-year-old because my name is Elizabeth and my birthday is on Valentine's Day--and I have blonde hair!!!! ;) ...Anyway, it eventually led to a Sweet Valley addiction that only petered out around the age of 14.

Sally says

I love those stories when twins get jealous of one of the others actually having a friend! The most dramatic so far has to be that Chalet School one where Margot went off on Len and Con, and then whey they pointed out she had Emmy, she snapped that that was DIFFERENT! (Now who does that remind me of? XD)

Sheila Read says

I remember the cover but just not the story.

Tan B says

I got this book for Christmas with a stack of others from this series when I was ten years old. It took me half a day too read through the stack before my mom stopped me. I couldn't read any books because I met my "quota".

This book was the first (because books 1, 2 and 3 weren't available at the bookstore) so it's my fave by default. Plus it didn't hurt that Eva was from the Caribbean whee I was living at the time.

Perrine Family says

"This book was really great. You should read it. It made me feel good inside. Like I should have a party. Elizabeth was my favorite girl because she was friends with the new girl in the end. The new girls was my second favorite girl. The pictures inside didn't have any color in them. They were in black and white and I wanted to see what the Valentine's box looked like. The mystery was exciting and mysterious, and there was another mystery at the end. I want to read the next book: "Jessica's Cat Trick"...Jessica is Elisabeth's twin. They are identical and I can't figure out which one is which. Jessica is my favorite because I liked the valentine that she got. It was from Elizabeth."
