Sheriff Lexie and Deputy Tye Wolfe are enmeshed in the strangest cases of their law enforcement careers. Two teenage girls vanish. Tye doesn't believe Wendy is a witch. Lexie doesn't think the ocean swallowed Emma.

Emma catches her stepmother with a lover. Does the woman murder her before Emma tells her father? Peers hate Wendy for revealing their dirty secrets. Does her high school have a murderer or two in the student body?

Tye and Lexie both know that secrets may end in murder. What they must learn, to solve their cases, is to look beyond logic to find the truth.

Jane says

Murder and Beyond brings Sheriff Lexi Wolfe to help her friend find her missing niece in Louisiana. Her brother Tye is acting in her place at home in Oklahoma and has a murder of a high school girl to solve.

Wendy the girl murder was reported to hear voices of the dead speak to her and she answers Tye's plea to name her murder in a very strange set of circumstances.

Lexie helps with stopping a human trafficking ring and then finds Emma and saves her too. Her clue came from the dates of death of other dead girls in the area.

Both stories blended together to make the last of the Lexi Wolfe series just as exciting as the first three.

Jo says

The brother and sister sheriff team of Lexie and Tye Wolfe are back solving murders but not together this time.

Lexie is off in Louisiana to help a friend find a missing niece and helps take down a human trafficking ring and rescue the niece too.

Tye is back in Oklahoma with the murder of a young woman to solve and he does with some interesting help.

Donna Welch Jones has done it again with another exciting murder mystery.
