Hood Legacy 2: Rise of the Young Royals K.C. Mills

When life happens, all you can do is brace yourself and roll with it.

In the second installment of Hood Legacy, the Karsens, Grants, and Masters have to make tough decisions about life and love. The crew is still trying to find their way, and it seems that the light at the end of the tunnel just won't shine bright enough for them to find it.

MJ and Azz have to decide whether to work things out or just let go. Kay and Ky are slowly putting the pieces back together in their relationship, but can she trust him? Then there's Mekkah, whose budding romance with Sonna is going well. However, things are rarely as they seem, and the secret that Sonna is keeping may be too heavy for their relationship to bear. Cole and Hayven are enjoying each other and falling in love. When someone from the past poses a threat to Hayven, Cole jumps into defense mode, bringing them even closer. He will stop at nothing to keep her safe, but how far is too far?

Great read

I love the extension with the Masters and Karsen families. Their children grown and raising havoc like their parents. This series is bomb and I can't wait to see what happens next. The boys have their riders and the women are true to them and I can't wait for the next book to drop. You never disappoint and this is another banger!

Good part two but grammar ugh

The ONLY reason I'm giving this a 4 out of 5 is because as a reader i hate spelling errors and grammatical mistakes. I shouldn't have to figure out what was supposed to go where in a sentence. As a author it would be great to have a proofreader before the books final print comes out to consumers.

Other than that, the books progression is amazing. I'm loving how the characters are coming together and we are getting to know them. Most of the time the focus is on the men but i like how you have incorporated the women and their stories on how they way their lives shaped them. I'm glad Simms is coming out of her shell, being as she has had to live so sheltered due to her past. She's becoming a great backbone for her man.

Fiyah!!!! ????

Great book, love the Grant's, Karsen's and Master's kids and parents. This book was everything, now I'm back to waiting on part 3. K. C. Mills, I'm giving you the side eye right now. Sonna's dad was sick, as was Hayven's. I'm loving how the boys are loving the girls. I'm glad Azz grew up and took responsibility for her mess up. I love that MJ is taking Azz as she is and giving her another chance. Where is the 28th??? ????

Tarra saysEVERYTHING

This story is EVERYTHING.....I couldn't put it down. I love how all the couples get along even with the siblings of their mates. Up can't wait to start part 3. Wondering do the dad's and uncles find out, does Hayven stay with Cole and is anyone going to wind up pregnant. Great writing now onto the next

Idk whose worse, the kids are they parents. I'm enjoying seeing them go through things that everyday college kids go through. I love the couples and I love how K.C flipped the script and had the men vulnerable and the women were the ones fighting it. The guys put there love out there no problem and it's usually flipped. I love how MJ changed Azz and made he start respecting herself, and how both Cole and Mekkah saved there girls from there fathers. Each couple are going through fazes that shows there love and each time they pass. & after that cliff hanger I'm excited for part 3.

I must say each book within this series gets better and better and I really enjoyed it. There were more than a few typos and grammar errors, but it didn't take away from the stroyline, hopefully, the next book this issue will be corrected. Love the relationship and friendship between these couples and their loyalty to each other. You really showed the growth development of these character and with more room to grow. Can't wait for PT.3 to see what's next to unfold with The Karsens, Grants and Masters after that ending....UGH!!.
Awesome series and job well done KC Mills as always.

Pissed!! Why do I keep doing this to myself!? Loved the story. Loved the growth in each relationship! Favorite characters of the series MJ,Mekkah and Sonna. The ending shocked me but has me taking 500 guesses of why it happened! I guess I'll be waiting for part 3 lol

evette w saysGood Stuff

This was a bang up follow-up to an exciting story about the families we love. I love that the writer keeps the theme geared toward these young adults and the drama that can follow. I also like the bond the girls are developing and the way they are starting to support one another. This was really good reading. My only ding is that the editing needs to be a little better.

I love these kids. They are their father's sons. All the girls have issues though. I love this story. I can't wait til the fathers find out what their sons are up to. I like how they all became friends. Good Read. I read from beginning to end straight through and about to start part 3.
