M L Dyson says

I loved this story of Creed and Jada. It is a story of loss, grief and heartache but it is also a story of second chances in life and love. Jada, Jason and Creed grew up together. But when the unthinkable happens it leaves Jada and Creed to figure out how to live again. Bad choices and bad decisions lead both to a life they didn't know existed - it's a life full of abuse for one and anything to numb the pain for the other. But fate steps in and they see another chance at happiness. But will they have a chance before their poor decisions catch up to them? This is a great story!

Creed, Jada and Jason grew up together , creed and had a have always wanted each other but creed promised jason he wouldn't touch his sister. When Jason is killed in an accident creed and Jada comfort each other...too much, creed leaves Jada and town. Skip 5yrs and creed is in fallen angels MC, miserable and not caring if he lives through each run. Jada made a wrong choice in man, a member of the shadows MC who was lovely at first but then changed, beating her, sharing her with brothers and pimping her out. A chance meet between the two sets everything off, they can't be apart again. A great read that has you gripped from the start

Review:

“Her whispers touch me. The desire I have for her is clearly visible. I want every drop of her. She is the most beautiful person that I have ever laid my eyes on and she is here with me, in my bed.”

5 Creed stars!!! Creed is just too much.... Ugh I'm in love!!

I was given the opportunity to read this book and let me just say how excited and happy I was when I got the book!! I fell in love with Creed, he's so sexy and broody and ugh, sexy!!! His and Jada's story is emotional and so sinfully sexy!! There's no way you won't be addicted once you start reading!! This was such a great start to the series and I can't wait to read more!!!

My Rating: 4 Stars

New to me author...

If you enjoy MC books then this one may be right your alley. It is a strong story one that I enjoyed very much I actually devoured it in a few hours.

Creed is a little twisted and now even more so after something happens after a football game at school.

Jada is the girl who has always had his heart but she is his best friends sister. Although Jada wants him just as much.

These two are brought together by emotions and turn apart by emotions only to be brought together again with action, love, emotion and a whole lot of HOT!

Add in a few more bikers, some brawls, some deaths, and a return of a best friend for Jada. I also really liked Tank which is a buddy of Creeds.

The story is well written, the characters I enjoyed however the book needs proofing as there are many missing words. But overall I would suggest it.

Within the first few pages of this book I wanted to cry & slap the crap out of Creed. From there it just took off. I was hooked and could not put this book down. This is my first read by Erin Trejo and I know for sure it will not be my last.

Creed and Jada will worm their way into your hearts page after page as well as the secondary characters. Creed is Jada's brother's best friend and is sworn off Jada and told not to touch her. Creed follows those rules but the sparks between those two are undeniable. When tragedy strikes Creed leaves town leaving Jada behind even after promising Jason (her brother) to always look after her. After years of being apart Jada and Creed are once again reunited and the sparks are still there. But is it enough or has Creed leaving Jada behind made her bitter? Can she forgive him? The twists that are in this book will have you on the edge of your seat waiting for more.

E Reader says

This isn't a sweet romance, but it is a powerful one. When Jada's brother died in an accident it destroyed her and Jason's best friend, Creed. For one night they took solace in each other, but then Creed took off because he was broken. However, he left Jada on her own and she went from broken to destroyed. After ten years, Jada walks into Creed's MC club and brings Creed back to living and he doesn't know what to do with his feelings. However, Jada belongs to another club and if Creed tried to keep her, there would be war. When Jada is found almost dead from being shot up with drugs, Creed refuses to let her go. However, he is afraid to keep her. Jada isn't used to be treated with some respect, for the last few years she has been used and abused. Now Creed wants her? She is pissed that he left her in the first place. On top of that, the other club wants Jada back and is willing to take out anyone to take her back.

Can Jada and Creed work out their differences or will time run out for them? This story is explosive and has so many twists and turns. It is a dark romance, but it was a great read. I will definitely be reading Tank's story next!!

I voluntarily read this ARC and this is my honest review

3.5 Solid Stars, Very Good!!!! SPOILER ALERT, Spoilers Below read With Caution!

OK, this is another first read by a new author to me and I am happy to say that I WILL be reading more from her in the future!

Now why only 3.5 Stars well, for me personally, I had some issues. I loved BOTH the H and the h BUT I truly didn't like at all how the author portrayed the h for the 5 years they were separated. Sorry, Jada's lifestyle during their time apart, a huge no for me, a real bummer and that's just my opinion. Other than THAT, I really loved her. Just wished Jada had been written differently than this character, for me, she deserved "better" than that.

Creed, oh gosh, I loved him BUT again a couple of minor issues with him too had me deducting from my rating. I also didn't quite get or really believe in how the author had him just up and leave. I kinda get what was going on in his HEAD BUT for someone who was in love and genuinely cared about this girl, running away and never checking and/or trying to find her....another big fat no for me, too. Again these are just my own personal opinions.

As much as I loved the synopsis, it was the execution of the storyline that fell flat or rather, failed for me somewhat. The writing was very good, again LOVED the characters including the secondary but for me the portrayal of Jada and Creed, hmmmm, didn't have me fully connecting and/or "believing" either. The love these two had and the love that NEVER left, hmmmm, if it weren't for a coincidence that they end up seeing each other then it seems they would never have seeked each other out so that's what baffled and disappointed me. Well, in fairness to Jada, Creed was the one who walked or rather ran away so she wouldn't have been able to find him BUT Creed had no excuse to never seek her out. Other than that, I really liked it a lot and definitely plan to read the next book in this series for sure!!!!!!

"There has always been something about Creed that has pushes my buttons and draws me in, but I stay my distance just like my brother asked. Creed is the biggest player I have ever met in my life."

I was soo excited when I finally got to read this book!! I actually read the series kind of backwards. lol I read book 2-Tanks story first. And really, these books, to me can be read as a standalone but now that I have read Creed's story, I kind of want to go back and read Tank's story again due to having soo much back story now with Creed and Tank and their awesome friendship!! It was soo freaking good!!

Creed is such a BAD ASS!!! He is sooo bossy and is such a Dirty Talker!!

"I swear on all that is holy, I want to spank that girls ass like she's never been spanked before."

And ohhh Lawd that makes for such a kick ass biker book!! lol

This book of course is Creeds story. Creed grew up next door to Jada and her brother. They flirted, always had each others back but when tragedy struck, Creed and Jada ended up going there separate ways after one night together. There was a lot of heartbreak by both. Years later they happen to meet up again and here comes the drama, romance and craziness that goes along with the MC life.

I gave this book 5 iScream Books Stars!! I just loved Creed!! New BBF..lol Make sure you pick this up if you love those dirty talken MC boys!! Way to go Erin Trejo!!! Love your MC hotties!!

Beth says

Wow! I really liked this book! This is the first book I have read by this author and it won't be my last. The story is well written and the characters are developed, as well as the secondary characters.

This is the story of Creed and Jada. They are childhood friends and grew to care deeply for each other, but never acted on it. Jada's brother and Creed's best friend Jason, forbid Creed from having anything other than a friendship with his sister. Creed always eluded to Jada he had feelings for her.

After Jason's accident the grief was too much for Creed to handle, and the guilt that he couldn't keep his promise to his best friend about his feelings for his sister. He decided he needed to leave. The night before he left, he and Jada consummated their love for each other and Creed selfishly left Jada to pick up the pieces of her life without him.

Creed

Creed finds the Fallen Angels MC and exists. He is lost. He doesn't care if he lives or dies and becomes the MC's deadliest sharp shooter. He volunteers for dangerous runs with no regard for his safety. He feels he has nothing to live for. Yes, he has his MC, but he lost his best friend and the only woman he ever loved, and he only has himself to blame.

Jada

Jada ends up with a member of the Shadow's MC, a rival to the Fallen Angels. She thought she was in love with Kenny, but he changed during their relationship and he has treated her like a club whore instead of treating her like an old lady. He beats her up and shoots drugs in her veins against her will. Jada only wants out. She wants to see her brother again. She wants to get away from Kenny's abuse.

Jada is told to go with the President's old lady to the Fallen Angel's MC to sell herself. Creed sees her and puts a stop to any other brother to approach Jada. She is so torn, but must leave Creed and return to Kenny and the Shadow MC.

I am not going to give any more away. You really need to read this second chance romance that has action, steamy sexy times and a great love story.

I was provided a copy of the book by the Author for an honest review.

O.M.G. WOW I just finish reading this book and let me just say that this is the first book that I read from this Author. I love the character and love how the book turn out to be, at first was I like what am I reading cause of the way how things turned out to be, but once I got more into the story I couldn't put the book down and I wanted more I am going to keep this short since this was a fast read and I don't want to give anything away.

Jada, Creed and Jason all grow up together Jada and Jason where twins, and Creed and Jason where best friend they did everything together. But Creed always had feelings for Jada and Jason always told him to stay away from his sister, but all that change one night when they where at a party Jason end up having an accident that was the night that change their lives.

Now five years later and Jada life turn into a night mare and felt in with the wrong club. Her man don't care much for her and he wouldn't mind to pass her around to his brothers Jada hate the life that she has now. That's how she end up with a friend going to at another club the Fallen Angel, That was the first time in five years that she seen Creed. Creed has become a member of the Fallen Angels after losing his best friend and the only woman he ever loved he thought he did not have a reason to stay alive but all that changes the one night when he see Jada. He couldn't believe that she was their and all those feeling came back, after he seen what she been through he just know that he cant let her go.

I really love and enjoy reading this book, I love how Jada and Creed are with each other, Love the chemistry that they have going on, love it how protective Creed is of Jada and the Sex Scene are Hot. Cant wait to read Tank story.

Author Erin Trejo THANK YOU so much for introducing me to this Awesome Characters and this Amazing book love it.

*Book received in exchange for an honest review*

I don't want to me too harsh so will keep this short.

sex scenes - at times it was cringey or cheesy but for the most part showed the intimacy perfectly. I found the characters constant talking during sex irritating and unnecessary.

Grammar - sorry to say this, it was pretty terrible which made this book harder to read.

Characters - hate Jada! She's the epitome of clingy. Bikers hate clingy chicks but she was all over Creed like a rash. She knew the lifestyle already yet still used the gift.of the gab on one too many occasions.

I liked Creed but he seems to have a personality disorder and is a bit OTT when it comes to protecting Jada from his brothers.

storyline - was okay, very promising. I loved the drama and action but found parts were contradicting other parts as well as having continuous repetitive components throughout the entire book. Some time scales didn't add up as well.

This author shows promise in her writing, with a little more work on this one and I can see it being a stellar book.

Another thing that stood out to me was the speech. A lot of the time I had no idea who was speaking...there was no 'I said she said' 'she told I told' etc etc and it made it confusing as hell.

She's a Lip Biter says

Erin Trejo impressed me with this book. This is the 2nd books of her's that I have read and the first one just didn't do it for me, her MC book was a different story.

Jada and Creed's story is a captivating one. They meet in high school but Jada is off limits because she is his best friend's sister. Creed leaves town and years later they meet up under circumstances that are less than ideal - but the love they have for each other hasn't changed. This book grabs you from the first page and you won't be able to put it down. Erin takes you on a journey through the lives of Jada and Creed - she makes you feel like you're actually there with the characters. You feel for them and get angry and upset with them.

Overall great start to this MC series!!

I may have a teeny tiny addiction to MC reads and try to inhale as many as I can so when I had a chance to read Creed I jumped at it.

Creed is my first book by this author so I didn't know what to expect going in, I don't read reviews prior to opening a book as I want to form my own opinion and not have anything given away.

Creed honestly took me a bit to get into, it may have been my mood as I'd just come off an extremely emotional book, but after a few chapters I was hooked.

Creed & Jada's loss early on when their lives were turned upside down made me want to cry, fast forward a few years when they cross paths again and both are in their own version of hell I started to get excited about the book. But that was just the beginning for them.

Jada's seemingly ideal life went downhill during Creed's absence. She suffered in her own home, then on the streets and finally at the hands of the man who she thought was saving her.

Running into Creed brings everything back, she hates him for leaving yet deep down loves him more than life itself.

And Creed has always loved Jada, he just couldn't handle the loss and ran.

Seeing these two try to work out their feelings while all hell is breaking loose around them kept the story rolling along at quick pace that kept me glued to the pages.

Creed is a solid 4 star read for me and I'm definitely going to check out the rest of this series.

This is the first of Erins that i have read. I loved it and will be back for more!!

Creed and Jada both have baggage.

Creed has become the ultimate biker bad boy, while Jada just tries to survive. When they reconnect after 5yrs apart...sparks fly!

Without giving away spoilers...This book has everything you could want- tragedy, rivals, best friends, sex, revenge, drama, action, did i mention sex?? and forgiveness.

You will fall in love with Creed and Jada, and those that help them, as they try to overcome the obstacles that face them.

I received this an an ARC for an honest review

Lisa says

Creed by Erin Trejo is the first book in her Fallen Angel's MC series. It is a dark and twisty ride that takes you from the main characters childhood and best friends and shoots you into the present with bad choices and losses and pain.

Finding each other after five years could have been simple but Creed still feels unworthy of Jada even though he will do anything to protect her. Jada has herself buried so deep in a terrible life that when she stumbles upon Creed at a rival MC's party she can only hope he is strong enough to break her out of her mistakes.

A great start to the series. Excited to see what's next.
