Divorce and Remarriage Tony Evans

There are many views today on morality, relativity and right and wrong. Dr. Tony Evans refuses to let the voice of God be drowned out amidst the clamor of the crowd. In the age where people can get a "no-fault" divorce (When is it ever nobody's fault') believers who claim to live by God's word cannot dodge the issue: we cannot skip it, run from it, or ignore it. God has spoken clearly on this subject and while it is far from easy to address, it must be dealt with. Combining a high view of marriage, compassion, and biblical authority, Tony Evans gives invaluable insight into divorce and remarriage as he explores real-life fears and questions by looking at the issue from God's vantage point, not from our emotional one.

Ruth says

In a nutshell, God hates divorce, (Malachi 2 v 16) but he also hates adultery, violence and desertion and he sometimes permits divorce.

This book explores the 3 Biblical acceptable reasons for divorce namely;

1. unfaithfulness/adultery
- 2.when a Christian is abandoned by a non Christian spouse
- 3.when a Christian is living in the realm of spiritual death through unrepentant spiritual rebellion ie. desertion or violence.

1 Cor. 7 v 10-15

What God has joined together only God can separate. This book explains these issues very clearly.

Linda Sedillo says

This book was a great and biblical read. I would recommend this book to all who have questions or concerns about divorce or remarriage. Many people and even Christians do not have a clue on what God says about marriage and divorce. There is definitely biblical grounds for divorce but what many don't know is that divorcing for a reason that is not approved by God brings severe damage to both spouses and affects children. Marriage is a gift from God and it is to bring glory to God.
