Uma história sobre uma Mulher chamada Kathryn Kuhlman

By Maselha Alves - agosto 15, 2018

Vamos nos inspirar em mulheres importantes da década de 70?

O livro é bem pequeno, não passa de 200 páginas, mas conta sobre a vida dela contada por Benny Hinn (Autor do livro), esta mulher para ele foi muito importante e através dela recebeu a unção e conheceu realmente o espírito santo, pois só sabia como era conhecido por outros, mas conhecer, saber e sentir é outro e assim conta um pouco da história deste autor maravilhoso.

Kathryn teve uma história bonita cheio de altos e baixos, mas sempre fiel naquilo que fazia e no que acreditava, sua infância foi sempre agradável a mãe era da Metodista, o pai da batista e após disto houve algo lindo entre ela e a mãe, mas ela amava seu pai, via o amor que ela tinha por tudo aquilo que fazia, conta depois como foi o começo do seu ministério, sua conversão, estudos, os ministros e o principal de todos foi a Cura, isto foi impactante para todos ali, a forma como Deus usava ela era tremenda e você sente aquela convicção que há no livro.

Ela acaba tendo um romance também, casou e não deu certo, não teve empecilho para desistir e seguiu o seu destino sozinha firme e forte.

Logo após termina com sua morte e após a morte ainda foi falada por pessoas de sua cidade natal, homenagem e estava escrito que traduzido é "Eu creio em milagres" e até hoje ela é falada com sua maravilhosa trajetória de vida.

Incredible and inspiring story! Not very well-written though.

Tristan Clements says

This book was a very simple and entertaining read. It was full of stories as well as the occasional deep spiritual insight, and it honestly only took about a day to read. I was surprised at how quickly I read through it. All in all it was a very enjoyable and impactful book!

Impressive biography by Pastor Hinn of the remarkable faith-healer Kathryn Kuhlman, through whom the Lord performed mighty miracles. Surprisingly, she had no intention of being a faith-healer: the Lord simply started healing people one night as she preached while she was beginning her recovery from a failed marriage. Therein, perhaps, lay a greater message.

A tad self-agrandizing on the part of Pastor Hinn though this will come as no surprise to anyone familiar with his ministry. A delightful and encouraging work nonetheless.

Christopher Lewis Kozoriz says

"What will be the story of your life? How will you respond when the Lord gives you a vision for your future and says, "Do it!"

It matters not where you were born, the circumstances of your life or the mistakes you have made. The eyes of the God are searching the world for a willing vessel He can mightily use - someone, anyone, who will totally yield themselves to His Holy Spirit.

Will that someone be you?" (Benny Hinn, Kathryn Kuhlman, Page 170)

Benny Hinn, the author of this book attempts to write a biography of the great woman of God, Kathryn Kuhlman. I believe he did a great job. He wrote in terms of how this woman had a great impact on his own life. She was the woman who opened his eyes to God's most indescribable gift, the Holy Spirit. Part of this book reflects on when Benny Hinn was first introduced to the ministry of Kathryn Kuhlman as a young man, which he expounded upon in his other book Good Morning, Holy Spirit!. He says, "I wanted to know the Holy Spirit as she knows Him". This began a transformation in Benny Hinn's life and he began to draw near to God the Holy Spirit.

This book shows us that our mentors need not be people we have met in person, they can be an author, a speaker on television or radio...we can be mentored through their books and other materials that they have authored. Benny Hinn is a great example of this, he had never met Kathryn Kuhlman in his life, but he says in this book that her anointing came upon him for a season, until he could walk in his own anointing. The anointing of other godly ministers can rub off on us.

This book shows us that it is important to have spiritual mentors. It doesn't have to be Kathryn Kuhlman, it can be another minister that you endeavor to learn from. This is one of the fastest ways to becoming spiritually mature. By learning and being taught from mature believers. To God be the glory.
