Tongue Teaser - Male Dominance Female Submission M/f XXX Erotica Abby Adams

Excerpt;

I ask her to touch her nipples, to make them hard. We're still pretending that this is just for better photos. She pinches her nipples making them grow long and erect, her firm breasts more conical than rounded now that they are released from the bra built into her tank top. I ask her if she is wearing panties. Of course she is in that tiny skirt. So slip off the skirt, I suggest. She's got a white thong, fairly modest from the front but just a thin strip of white material running up between her dark cheeks. I take more photos, from the front, from behind. Bend over that chair a bit? I can see she's getting a bit turned on now, dressed in just a small thong, bending over with just a fine layer of material covering her pussy, feeling the caresses of my camera. Thinking about the caress of my tongue.

Sometimes I push the photography more, get them completely naked, make them masturbate for the camera. Watch them while the madonna into a slut transformation gradually takes place as they get aroused. But tonight I'm ready to taste her. I come up behind her and put a hand on one of her bare ass cheeks. She doesn't move away. Her skin is smooth and silky. Black velvet. I put my other hand on her belly. I can feel the tension in her, feel her holding her breath, as I move my hand up onto one of those magnificent firm breasts. I can feel the nipple, hard like a black licorice candy, a point in the palm of my hand.

I move around in front of her so I can caress both breasts. Without my hands leaving her breasts I slowly squat down in front of her. Finally she starts to feel my tongue as I just push the tip of it into her navel and then I trail it lower, across her belly, onto the thin material of her thong. She's even tenser now as my tongue traverses the white cotton triangle through which I can feel her hair, and follows the curve of her body around until I'm lightly licking her outer lips through her panties. Finally, I lower my hands from her breasts and slowly slide my fingers down her sides. She shivers at the sensation.

I hook my thumbs into the narrow sides of her thong. First I ease it over her ass behind her, and then I pull the front of her thong down so my tongue finally touches the skin of her outer lips directly. She shakes in excitement. I'm pleased that she is waxed smooth on her lips, a sexy contrast to the triangle of wiry curls that she has had left above.

I drop the thong to her ankles and with just a hint of pressure from my hands on her knees she spreads her feet apart to offer me her pussy. She has thick inner labia, dark brown of course, like some exotic meat at an ethnic grocery. I push my tongue back between her lips, licking the length of her slit, tasting the wetness of her arousal. She shivers again. I put my hand behind one knee and lift it up and place a foot on the chair beside us so she's standing on one leg. She's completely open now. I can tell she's anticipating the moment when my tongue enters her cunt. She's trembling slightly, over-aroused at the thought of her cunt finally feeling my tongue.

She growls like a dog as I push my tongue into her hot entrance. I reach behind and cup her ass cheeks as I start to fuck her with the tip of my tongue. She starts to moan, reveling in the unusual feeling. At first her moans get louder and then she falls quiet and her body tenses, building up to her first climax of the night. Sometime I have to lick a girl's clit hard too but I can sense she's going to come from just my tongue in her cunt. I move one of my hands a little so I can get a finger on her asshole. I want to feel the onset of her orgasm in her ass. I twist my tongue a little inside her and she explodes, her body a pulsating firework display of little bursts of joy, her asshole winking on my fingertip.

She almost collapses so I guide her to sit on the chair.
