Following the phenomenal success of Girls' Night In, you're invited to spend another night with the hottest women authors in town . . . and some fellas as well (under strict supervision, of course).

Over forty of your favourite writers have written stories specially for Girls' Night In, Gentlemen by Invitation, making it the chunkiest and funkiest book around. And since all of the proceeds go to the charity War Child, by buying this book you've made a difference to the lives of children devastated by conflict.

Guaranteed to make you laugh, cry and . . . blush, Girls' Night In, Gentlemen by Invitation contains bedtime stories that your parents never told you.

I was very disappointed - I enjoy a good short story, but they were few and far between in this collection. Frequently i got left with a "wtf was that about?" feeling. Some were plain wierd, others made no sense. I got to the stage where I would read the first page, then skip if it did not appear to interest me. Definitely would not recommend.
