Dream Grace

The Eternal Kiss Dream Grace

*He was a demon with a heart of stone.
But that was before he met her.
That was before she melted his heart.*

Cesca had always known she was different. May lihim ang pagkatao niya na hindi maaaring mabunyag sa kahit sino sapagkat kamatayan niya ang magiging katumbas niyon. Kaya mahigpit na ipinagbilin sa kanya ng kanyang ama na huwag siyang basta-basta magtitiwala sa kahit sino.

Ngunit nang makilala niya ang isang guwapong estranghero na nagpakilalang si Desmond, kinalimutan niya ang mahigpit na tagubilin ng kanyang ama. Ibinigay niya sa lalaki nang buong-buo hindi lang ang pagtitiwala niya kundi maging ang kanyang puso.

Ngunit nagkamali pala siya. Dahil ang kauna-unahang lalaking pinagkatiwalaan at minahal niya nang higit pa sa kanyang sarili ay siya palang nilalang na inatasang tumugis at pumatay sa kanya.

The start was okay but not when it was finished. And i really don't like how the author messed up with the vampire history. :(

this book is actually cool [ since it's pinoy gothic] kung sana man lang- hindi na la ng ito hinaluan ng "Twilight" thing ng nagsulat nito. the story was good- but the parts where the female lead character,named Francesca Di Sandro- sa totoo lang at no offense meant- yung personality kasi nya at the over-all character herself....wala syang pinagkaiba kay Bella Swan ng twilight books....

una, na mention sa libro na si Desmond aka Texas..... parati syang naka-alalay kay Cesca. the author even stated that:

"kahit gumewang lang ng kundi ang mga paa nya o umiral ang paggiging likas na lampa nya, nagpa-panic na ito...."

kalampahan o clumsy/klutziness ang pangunahing distinguishing trait ni Bella Swan- with Edward Cullen constantly protecting her even when she trips out going out of the gym, attacked by thugs or any bad guys, etc....,

at isa pa dito.... ang animo rock mountain na mental shields ni Cesca- one also of the many traits of bella- in the twilight books- bella narrated that nobody could read her mind because "she is extremely private there...."- not even her edward. ganito rin ang mga protagonist ng librong ito.

at yung binigay na kaisipan ng sumulat nito that her characters are all PERFECT- that even greek gods and goddesses will be put to utter shame. Nashville, described as the male helen of troy, Desmond as a badboy archangel, Oslo as viking norwegian.... and among others. ang mga ganitong traits- mapa physical man o hindi- ang taglay ng ibang twilight characters like jasper, emmet, alice, rosalie, dr. carlisle at ni esme.

I was glad to come across a gothic book written by a filipino. but I was DISAPPOINTED after. gaya nga ng sabi ko... the characters are made PERFECT that they seemed to possess no flaws... nor weakness [ well... maliban sa nanghihina diumano sila sa araw or di nakaka-inom mg dugo or what] yun lang... wala ng iba.

ganito kalala ang iniwang infection ng Twilight. and this is really BAD for the Filipino Literature.

Uhmm.. it's a good story, though nahabaan lang ako dun sa monologue ni Andromeda, reading that part sets my eyes to sleep... Zzz.. but the story was great! She was able to think about a new history for vamps unlike those stereotype vampire origin... And of course, a very genius description of Desmond Stone! He's lovable! Good job, Dream Grace
