Can't Stop Fate Debra Kayn

Mel Davis pledged his life to Ronacks Motorcycle Club as a sixteen-year-old runaway. He's committed his share of crimes through the years as he went from prospect to lifer, but none more dangerous than falling in love with Raelyn and her son, Dukie. Then, one night, he makes a decision that will forever change his life. And, he has no one else to blame but himself.

Five years after the death of her husband, Raelyn Williams has settled into managing the club-owned Pine Bar & Grill. The love, support, and protection she receives from Ronacks while being a single mom raising the son of a deceased Ronacks member provides her with everything she needs. Until, her wild mom, eccentric Grandma June, and her younger brother arrive at the bar out of the blue in a beat-up motorhome, complicating her life and disrupting her safe haven. Maybe their craziness is rubbing off on her because she suddenly finds Mel too sexy, too tempting, too dangerous.

There's no way she'll compromise herself by getting involved with another biker again. The club always comes first, and it only takes one dangerous activity for her to lose another person she loves.

She won't do it.

She can't.

Can't Stop Fate is book 4 and the last issue of The Ronacks MC Series by Debra Kayn.

Can't Stop Fate is the story of Mel Davis & Raelyn and her son Dukie. We get a quick look of both characters through the other books in the series but I have been waiting on Mel's story since his first appearance in the series and Debra didn't disappoint, this was my favorite book. The chemistry between Mel and Raelyn is off the charts. The plot is full of family drama, lots of twist and turn, lots of action, sexy bikers and their women, great characters, some threatening situations and hot love scenes. No Spoilers!! This issue you can read as a standalone, but my opinion is that it would be better to start in order with book one ...or something: Ronacks Motorcycle Club, to get more acquainted with Mel and Raelyn. I have read and loved all the books in this amazing series and I'm very sad that this issue is the last one. But at the same time I'm just looking forward for the new adventure Debra will be writing for us next, hoping for more biker stories. LOL!

I don't often start a series at the end, in fact I don't think I have ever done it, but I read the synopsis of Can't Stop Fate and I felt that I absolutely had to read it straight away! I have read some of Debra Kahn's book ages ago and I'm not sure why I drifted away from finishing her back list, like I usually do with a writer I do enjoy. Anyway I loved the main characters in this book; they are friends to lovers & it's so believable - I just wanted Raelyn's to say Yes! Now I'm going to start @ the beginning and read 3 more Ronacks MC stories.

Love second time around, hmmm

Loved Mel and Raelyn story

This story had it all angst, love, suspense, friends, family, sadness, fear, happiness and whole roller coaster of emotions. The sensual bedroom scenes between Mel and Raelyn were very hot and sexy. highly recommended..

I think Mel is my favorite in the series!!

This is where all the good men went.

Mel is the ultimate book boyfriend! Strong, nurturing, supportive, and full of love. Doesn't hurt that he rides a motorcycle, can handle business and looks good while doing it. Raelyn was strong, hardworking and a great mom but her back and forth with her feelings for Mel made me give 4 stars instead of 5. As always Debra wove together a great story and wrote it beautifully.

Can't Stop Fate is the last book in the Ronacks Motorcycle Club series. It can be read as a standalone, but I suggest starting from the beginning. Throughout the books, you get to see glimpses of both Mel and Raelyn which really brings more to the characters. Can't Stop Fate is my favorite book in this series. The single parent trope is one of my favorites. Mel has been in love with Raelyn for about three years. She has only seen him as a friend until recently. With their new-found relationship, Raelyn's family drama, and someone threatening the Roanacks' Pine Bar & Grill, Mel and Raelyn will have to fight for what they want. I loved Mel and Raelyn. Mel was truly devoted to Raelyn and her son Dukie. He spends a lot of his time with them, even living in the apartment near theirs. I loved his relationship with Dukie. He was a father-figure to him. Raelyn has been in mourning, and had yet to think of moving on until her relationship with Mel suddenly changed. She was afraid to love a biker again, worried that he would be killed. The combination of romance and club action was just enough and not overly done. I'm sad this series has ended, but can't wait to see what the author will write next.

"Oh, honey. A girl can never have too much swing." - Grandma June

Can't Stop Fate is the final (sob) book in the Ronacks MC series. Everyone is in it, but this is Mel and Raelyn's story. Raelyn is Duke's widow and has been raising her son as a single mom for the last five years, but she hasn't been alone...she's had a friend beside her for years - Mel. This man has the patience of a saint. I loved this story. I didn't guess what was going on with a certain secondary character - in fact I was WAY off base. My heart stopped at one scene that was going to make Mel late for a very important date and I cheered when the wheels were raised! I loved that even though they weren't perfect there was lots of love between the three generations of women. I was even content with the decision the club made concerning the Pine Bar & Grill. Overall a great read and I'm dreaming of a possible series of the next generation featuringDukie (a girl can dream)

Great ending to an amazing series!

If you've read from book one, you should really don't just jump into this, you'll know Mel as a younger skinny boy and Raelyn who was married and very happy with Duke. Shit obviously happens within the three books before this one, and now Mel is a grown sexy man who's taken care of Rae and her adorable son, Dukie. He literally stepped up and took them as his own. Well 5 years later, he's in so deep with them and so is Rae but shit once again keeps getting between them. I loved them together. Mel was so sweet and I swooned over him. I wasn't sure how I was going to like him, seeing how he literally grew between the books, but the author made sure to make him a sexy man. Great series and seriously pick this us, all four, and enjoy!

The perfect ending!

Can't Stop Fate is the amazing final book in the Ronacks MC series! Mel has dedicated his life to the club and has taken under his protection Raelyn and her son Dukie. Her eccentric family moves in with her and Mel finds himself unable to resist his feelings for Raelyn. He wants a family with her and her son but she is reluctant to be with a biker again because she knows that the club will always come first. Will they have their happy ending? I'm so happy that Mel got his story, and I love his connection to Raelyn and her young son! I'm sorry that this series has come to an end but I also can't wait for the next book by Debra Kayn!

I think this was a really good read with likeable characters who may not be blood related but become family through their club experiences. Team Mel, Raelyn and Dukie, for sure.

4 I will go to hell and back Stars

This is the first time I've read Debra Kayn and I already know that I'll never get enough of her work. I fell so head over heels for Mel that I really, really wish I had started with book one so I could get his full story. Now, if this is your first book by Ms. Kayn, I can attest to the fact that you can read this as a standalone. All the things you need to know are in this book, but I am one of those people who want the back story. I want to see the characters before they get together. I want to know why they are the way they are. I want to know what makes them tick.

I know Raelyn makes Mel tick.

I know Mel makes Raelyn tick.

I know they have been attracted to each other for years, but something always held them back.

Until now.

I want to spend tonight with you, wake up tomorrow and fix you breakfast, and what we do afterward...well, it doesn't matter. We'll flip a coin. Together."

It's this kind of thing that makes me love these two. The love they feel is real. It isn't forced or fake. It is only second to the love Raelyn feels for her son, Dukie. And it's even more beautiful because Mel loves Dukie, too.

Raelyn fights her feelings. She is afraid to commit her life to that of an Old Lady. She has been down this road and it did not end well for her. But what if Mel is different? What if their love is the love she's been waiting her entire life for? What then? Can she overcome her fears and be with the man who has become everything to her? Or will she tuck tail and run?

"Belonging to me looks good on you, babe."

Another great one from Debra Kayn

What can I say other then, this book blew me away. Every single time Deb writes I never know what to expect. This time, she amazed me with 2 characters, who I would have never expected to end up together. I've watched them grow during this series. Not to mention Crazy family drama. They dealt with grief as friends, built a family on friendship, fell in love with out knowing it. Sometimes the best relationships come from friendships and loss.

I have loved the Ronacks MC series by author Debra Kayn since the beginning and it does not surprise me that she once again delivers another amazing story in Can't Stop Fate. We have seen Mel and Raelyn throughout the series and have watched them go through hardships to become the people they are now. My heart broke along with Raelyn when she lost her husband, Duke and have been waiting for her time to find happiness again. I am so glad that the author chose Mel as the man for her and the slow buildup in their relationship just made it all that much more satisfying. I loved that they had a solid friendship and their chemistry and interaction with each other just seemed natural. Mel really showed great maturity as he bided his time over the years and did not rush Raelyn into anything she wasn't ready for. Raelyn showed her strength, determination and courage as she raised her young son, Dukie after suffering such a tragedy. I adored Dukie and his interaction with everyone just melted my heart. This author is a brilliant storyteller who can make me feel when I read her books. Great way to end this series and I cannot wait to see what she has in store for her readers next.

Second chances

Raelyn is working really hard to support herself and her son. After losing Duke she came to rely on Mel as her support. Mel has always had an interest in Raelyn and now he has decided to step up. A brilliant love story
