Jasmine Cottrell says

I LOVED this book. Tyler Anne Snell is quickly becoming one of my favorite authors; she kept the energy and pace moving so quickly and steadily. The plot twists and turns all the way to the very end. I could barely put it down!

Denise Cain says

A Deputy with armor around his heart and a reluctance to warm up to the small town he's been transferred to meets a witness who has been in months of torment. One obsession puts in motion something the deputy never expected....his armor may not be so thick after all.

Books and Spoons says

Oh this hero and heroine, they are SO adorably hot! After I finished the book I just sat there, looking out the window at the snowflakes dancing in the air and hummed with happiness.

But there is so much more to the characters than just the sizzling chemistry between them. The former city cop Caleb Foster is painted as a troublemaker and a challenging person to like. He has made some serious mistakes during his career and as a sort of a punishment sent to the small town police force. But as the story progress, and Caleb comes more known to all, the kind, gracious, and funny man inside him is revealed.

Passionate and stubborn, yes, but a good, solid guy regardless.

Alyssa Garner is brave, tough, generous soul. Her willingness to walk towards the trouble when others run away makes her a true heroine. Her heart is bigger than the earth, she is adorably clumsy, sweetly hot on the deputy, and determined to get justice.

Those two together heat up the pages, the things Caleb says to her had me swooning and sighing and smiling. Everything is so momentary, the culprits on the run, the explosive attacks towards the witnesses, the deadly intent and obsession of the criminal mastermind, it does not leave much room for romancing and flirting, but like a magnet Alyssa and Caleb are pulled together, with a little help from the rest of the town.

With creepy, eerie danger and frenzied suspense, delightful humor, and alluring romance this series have me enamored. I can't wait to read the next installment!
