Lesley Buba says

i really like this book

Jenn Swanson says

This story makes me never want to enter crawl spaces.

Wen Labrum says

Riveting and imaginative

I liked how fast this read...I love short stories. There were times I held my breath and actually felt sorry for the guy. Descriptions of the terror and creatures was actually frightening.

Melody says

recommended!

AnnMarie says

this was a really enjoyable intense terrifying read! A guy is on the job surveying an old school and the last place he has to check out is the crawl space in the basement. A claustrophobic crawlspace! He does it for the money. That said was as horrific and terrifying then any horror story I read! Its very gripping and I couldn't wait to see what was gonna happen next! it is a short story, and I love that! Horror Short stories sometimes are packed with the best storytelling, tightly packaged for a very enjoyable thrilling fun ride! This definitely fit that bill! I'd recommend it to anyone!
