What a Cowgirl Wants Tori Scott

It's wedding bells for Blake and Mandy. Mandy is determined to have the fairy tale wedding she's always dreamed of. But first, she has to get around a few problems--a bare-bones budget, Blake's interfering and controlling father, a couple of surprises from her bridesmaids, and Blake's accident.

Can she pull it off despite the obstacles life throws her way? Or will it all be too much?

This novella will complete the Lone Star Cowboys series...at least for now.

Tasha Treleaven says

Brilliant end to this series though I'd love to read all the characters again and see how they are all coming along married and with their children

Dorothy Crocker says

Mandy has dreamed of her perfect wedding all her life. Can she and Blake pull off her dream wedding without any of the disasters that have befallen their friends during their weddings, or any meddling from the parents? You'll need to read this book and find out if any disasters strike or not and what a great final wrap to the Lone Star Cowboy Series this book is.

Jeanette montgomery says

I liked this series.

I liked this book

I loved the characters and the story.

Linda Estes says

This is the final book in the series Lone Star Cowboys and it ties everything together. Mandy want a fairy tale wedding with Blade. She is afraid that something will go wrong but everyone tells her it will be fine. But things go wrong and she has to change wedding plans.

What a Great ending.

I will read the series again and again!!!!

Jeanie Jackson says

A perfect ending to an incredible series. Mandy and Blakes wedding preparation could go too smoothly but with the help of all of their friends, the wedding just what you would expect from Tori Scott....perfection!

Sandy Bartles says

Mandy has dreamed of a fairy tale wedding since she was a child. She, Blake nor her parents could afford this type of wedding so all their friends pitch in to make it happen. From the problems with Blake's father to the normal disasters that occur along the way to that "perfect" wedding, you will find yourself falling in love with Blake and Mandy all over again. Read this book. You will love it!!!
