¿Cómo que no puedo dar más de cinco estrellas? ¡Este libro es tan hermoso que merece más, muchas más!

No puedo describir con palabras, no me alcanzarán, la forma en la que me sentía al leer este libro. Es maravilloso, si el anterior fue un huracán de emociones, este fue el huracán multiplicado por mil.

Oscar es hermoso, amé en verdad su historia con su pareja, fue hermoso ver que ambos fueron felices y que Oscar encontró a alguien que lo amara a él junto con sus defectos, ¡Dios! ¿Cómo es que conocí a este chico cuando tenía cinco años y ahora encontró a su pareja? No lo puedo creer, ja, ja, no sé cómo será mi reacción cuando vea a los que leí nacer.

Es pocas palabras y para no irme toda la noche elogiando a esta maravilla de libro; es hermoso, me ha hecho el día, la semana, el mes, el año, me ha hecho muy feliz.

Me encantó ver a la mayor parte de la manada, espero poder leer más de los demás en los próximos. ♥

Me quedé preocupada por Bruno, por cierto, espero que mejore y que encuentre a su pareja, porque sé que la tiene, lo sé. ♥

Gracias por el maravilloso libro.

This book was more of a 3.5 stars. I agree that kidnapping the mates need to stop. Try something different please.

Eve Recinella (Between The Bookends) says

I'm enjoying this series as much as the original Brac Pack books. Love seeing the kids as adults, and the old guard coming to help out.

Nice to see Oscar all grown up. And the car luck is kinda funny. Plus FINALLY learn Hale's first name.

Of course, this is following the previously established pattern of having the applicable 'extended' family showing up with the Lakeland bear twins. However, this particular one, while they show up its more like they are along for the ride not usurping it.

The kidnapping, unfortunately, failed to have that wow factor quite quickly, seeing as it 'took care of itself' before the cavalry arrived to save the day, making it unforgettable for me.

Getting sick of the kidnapped mate plot. Has it been every one of the mates in this series? I think so. Well, Sam wasn't kidnapped, he was just lured away.

I LOVE Oscar though. I've always loved him, even as a kid. Still not a fan of Hale though. Kind of wanted a better mate for my Oscar. Hale was a straight up dick to him. The bears had every right to be upset.

Selina Durio says

Oscar and Hale are a nice couple, but this series, even with now trying to move on to the next generation is getting a little old.
