This was my favorite fairy book. It was really interesting because it was about the Fairy Olympics.

Cecelia says

Rachel and Kristy are about to find the last sporty fairy's magical object - Gemma's magical hoop. Rachel and Kristy see someone in the school but Kristy notices that it's someone green. They go inside to check it out. They find goblins practicing for the fairy olympics in the gymnasium. They're working on gymnastics. Rachel and Kristy find Gemma the Gymnastics Fairy inside the gymnasium and she changes their clothes so they can go and train with the goblins. Rachel makes an obstacle course for them and at the end they have to throw a hula hoop over Kristy. When the last goblin throws the hoop over Kristy, Kristy notices that it's the magical hoop and she runs away with it then gives it to Gemma.

I have been reading the series to my girls and they love it. I like it but after a bunch it gets old. I still will read all of them to my girls. Because daisy really knows how to capture her audience! And it is perfect for age group. Excellent!

Dolly says

This is the last of seven books in the Sports Fairies series by the group of authors who go by the name Daisy Meadows. It's a fun series, especially for young girls who are starting to read chapter books. Our oldest is addicted and will often read several in one day! This series has a sports theme and I like that it encourages girls to be active and try new sports.

I have read so many of these books that I must admit I've become immune to their silliness. I love that I can read them after she does and discuss the plots and her thoughts about the story and about what will happen next in the series. We will certainly read more of these books as long as they are still being written. I will always be thankful that this is one series that helped her to develop a love for reading!

June 2012 update: our youngest is now immersing herself in this series and is reading them very quickly, too. As inane as I thought they were, I love that this series is making readers of our girls. Hooray!

Deanna says
