Another hit! Love it! Was laughing again this morning as I finished it this morning...

Malcolm Cox says

More great artwork and hilarious gags that can be appreciated by young and old alike (though some of the more risqué gags were quickly glossed over). Highly recommended for anyone who likes to laugh.

Gareth Bogdanoff says

These are some of the funniest, and most non-pc comics to ever grace the pages of a family newspaper. In fact, I'm pretty sure that some of these were never published in a newspaper before. Case in point: Dean and the snorkel. (If you have read this, you know what I mean.)

Anyway, If you think Garfield is great stuff, you should check this out. It will knock your socks off.

I've always been a fan of Liberty Meadows and this volume did not let me down. The strips are funny and sarcastic and they hit my funny bone every time.

Started reading the strip online. Had to get my own copy.
