Charmed Carrie Mac

Izzy's mother works far away and leaves Izzy at home, alone with Rob the Slob. Angry at her mother and trying to deal with school, friends and the attentions of charismatic Cody Dillon, Izzy finds her life swirling out of control. Coerced into putting out to help Cody, Izzy finds she is one in a long line of girls ensnared in prostitution, with no way to escape. Believing that her mother will come for her, Izzy manages to fight back and, when the chance appears, make a run for it.

I really liked this book because it was short but told a good story. It was very intriguing and I always wanted to know what was going to happen next. This book also has a huge twist toward the end.

Talia Castro says

well this book is good but not that good that deserves five stars...i like how the author made that girl kind of iinnocent about the prostitution world. some people are so clueless about tht topic and is good that there's actually books out there that talks about it.

well i felt bad for izzy because of the things that she had to do and what she went through even though she didnt deserve what would happen to her in her own house wit her own family :/. its a good book though (: i would really recommend it to those people out there so they can kno how bad people are out there in this world (theres also good people too).

Brianna says

What a joke- the book is obviously a thinly veiled "warning" for young girls to stay in school and away from older "bad" boys. I agree with those statements, but oh man, what a horrible book this is. The writing style is akin to a third grader's, the characters may as well be paper cut-outs. The plot is ridiculously over the top. Izzy, the protagonist, falls in love with Dillon (the boy who ultimately sells her into prostitution) within a span of three days or so, and starts living with him? The mom kicks her own daughter out for stealing money to buy things like tampons? It's so ridiculous and I'm wasting my time even writing this review. I only read it because I had half an hour to kill and I'm two books behind on my Goodreads reading challenge.

A Book Vacation says

As I read this novel, I kept pleading aloud with the main character, Izzy. She is such a naïve teenager, looking for love and acceptance, as those she loves continually spurn her. When her mother fails to take her daughter's side, and instead sides with Rob, her lowlife live-in boyfriend, Izzy hits rock bottom. Her mother asks her to move out and live with a friend for the next six months, until she returns from her job at the logging camp. Hurt and resigned, Izzy seeks help from her new beau, Cody Dillon—a gorgeous high school dropout who is heavy into drugs. Of course, nothing is what it seems in the life of Cody Dillon, and Izzy soon finds herself sucked in to a vicious ring of drugs and forced prostitution...

This was pretty good. I wish it was more developed, but then again it is an adolescent fiction book that I've had since high school (roughly 8 years). I do highly suggest it to young readers however. It only takes an hour or so to read, but I also hate that it's probably the most predictable book I've ever read. I like atleast some surprises...

Volkert says

I read this book (in less than an hour) after a staff member questioned whether or not it was appropriate for our high school library. The subject matter is disturbing: a teen girl with poor self-esteem, and a dysfunctional home life, is charmed by the high-school dropout boy of her dreams into a life of drug abuse and prostitution.

Here are the reasons I'll keep it on my shelf. The book is an easy read, which may make it appealing to the very population that might be exposed to this type of life. And despite the subject matter, the language is fairly tame, with no real graphic descriptions of the events that take place.

The story does an effective job of showing the ugliness of a life of drugs and prostitution. This book may have a limited appeal in most high school libraries, but it might help some young people to think twice about lifestyle choices. (March 21, 2008.)

Lisa says

Izzy's mom's work has taken her out of town for 6 months, and mom's boyfriend "Rob the Slob" manages to get Izzy kicked out of the house. With the pressures of school, friends and the problems at home, Izzy is "rescued" by Cody Dillon, a bad boy drop-out who shows her just the attention she's craving. But getting involved with Dillon soon proves to be much worse than she ever imagined.

This is part of the Orca Soundings series, high interest easy reads for high school students. Drug use and deals, sex, prostitution, underage smoking and drinking . . . makes this one too mature for middle school.

This book is about this girl Named Izzy. She is 15 she stays with her mom and her moms boyfriend and they do not get alone. Izzy has a bestfriend named Margaret and she the quite type she dosn't like Rob the slob either. Rob is Izzy moms boyfriend he's not nice and he gets over on Izzy's mom. Izzy likes this boy named Cody Dillion he's very popular and all the girls like him. Margaret dosn't like him because he droped out school and he is to old for Izzy. Izzy says that Margaret is jealous of her because she fat and dont nobody want her. Izzy started being with Cody all the time and they were somkeing pot all the time with each other. Margaret says that Izzy has changed and she not the same any more and why does she smoke pot it makes her look stupid and Izzy told here it's just something that her and Cody do. Izzy moms come backe from being out of town and she is very upset that her house is a mess and that Izzy has been smokeing pot so she put izzy out and she goes to the gas station and calls Cody and he comes and pick her up and they go back to his house.

NICHOLE says

This book is about a young girl name Izzy who dreamed of becoming the girlfriend of a cute and popular boy in the school named, Cody Dylan. Her wish came true and things started to become awful. It turned out to be that the boy of her dreams was not a good person. He sold drugs and abused many women.

I recommend this book to my friend Shinnelle I think she will enjoy this book because Carrie Mac is her favorite author.

Charmed

This book is about a girl named Izzy, who is lets say not the most popular girl in school. She has the biggest crush on the high school drop out, Cody Dillon. But cody isn't who she thinks he is. Izzy get caught up, in drugs, dealing, and prostitution.

I love this book. I liked every thing about this book! I loved how it kept me on the edge of my seat. I have read this book about four times now. I cant put it down, I don't think I dislike anything about this book. You can be in any mood to read it.

This book has helped me a lot. Know how to pick the right guy, and live above the influence, of drugs , sex, and drinking. I cant really relate to this book because I have never been in that kind of position.

Me says

Finding my library's tumblecloud was a super bad event.

I don't go there expecting a good book. They're all the short little books, and they're mostly distractions.

Although I understand that not all of the book made sense to the MC, I wasn't grounded in anyway. I can still feel attached to the MC even if they're not all there, and I didn't get that. It made for a little bit of a confusing read.

Nancy Lyon says

This book I would recommend to more of a high school audience because, it says a lot of inappropriate words and talks about prostitution and a whole bunch of other bad things. But it's a really good book no matter what it's about.

Yasneli T says

This book so far is really interesting. Izzy is similar to me. She has a secret crush and when he comes by she get so happy. When she gets home, she hates it because her step dad always bugs her. She loves being at school better that way she sees Cody and her world lightens up. Think of the time when your secret crush was by you and accidentally bumped into you and touches you to pick you up oh my gosh or what if he talks to you oh my gosh he talked to me! Izzy's friend, Margaret always brings her down when she talks about what she feels about Cody when he comes by which is sad I mean a friend should always be happy with you. Still, Izzy is so happy that Cody talked to her and actually noticed her. Feeling butterflies when he is by you or him kissing your hand like Cody did to Izzy oh my gosh girl! Don't let people pop the bubble you're in.
