A real blessing

This has been a blessing for me and my family. Thank you . I know I will be reading this over and over again

Dianne says

Some of the bible verses that stood out for me are "But David encouraged himself in the Lord his God."
(Samuel 30:6 KJV)

Keep an attitude of gratitude - "Enter the Temple gates with thanksgiving; go into its courts with praise. Give thanks to Him and praise Him." (Psalm 100:4)

Peace - "And God's peace, which is far beyond human understanding, will keep your hearts and minds safe in union with Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:7) "You, Lord, give perfect peace to those who keep their purpose firm and put their trust in you." (Isaiah 26:3)

Some quotes from the book that I think are good to follow are "Keep your focus on God no matter what."
"Have the faith of God"

Trisha Barton says

This is a book to read over and over.

Dr. Ellis has shared so much in this book in such a simple way. I get it! Now I must live it! My life depends on my relationship with Jesus. If I don't spend time in His Word each day, I won't get to experience all He has planned for me. This book shows you how to get healing and anointing for your walk with Him and to achieve His purpose for each of our lives.

Darlene Hull says

This was an interesting book - mostly autobiographical - about the kinds of things God can accomplish in one minute. He encourages us to be prepared - and gives us steps to do so - so that when our turn comes for a 60 second miracle, we're ready.

Dianne Karesh says

Enlightenment

Every believer needs to read this book. I learned so much. I also am filled with new hope in my all powerful God

Ms. Monroe says

One Minute With God

I would recommend this book to everyone. This book is very detailed and full of wisdom and encouragement. One Minute With God is a lifetime of Change for your life.

Rex Libris says

The author claims to have had many and regular instances of conscious contact with God, beginning with the healing of his young son from meningitis.

For the most part his theology appears sound. I think he pushes beyond the boundaries though, when he says that everyone can experience these short conversations with God.

Also, there is an incident he describes where he is fishing and God advises him where to fish. While that might have been an important lesson for the disciples, in this instance it makes God seem very trivial. Maybe it is just me, but I don't think God would be telling a person where to fish and giving them a new fishing rod to replace a broken one.

Matt says

Inspiring book

I enjoyed it and it opened my eyes to the great possibilities and the future God has for me. Wow.

Cindy says

I found this book encouraging, yet a bit repetitive. I was expecting it to be written in a devotional format. I did enjoy it.

Sharon Lawrence-Andrew says

Excellent book and a joy to the soul

The Lord sent this book to me just at the right time and it was both a blessing and a joy to read.

Nicole says

Omg One The Best Books I have read This Year. I would Recommend This for any Christian.

Newell says

"One Minute With God" by Rev. Keith Ellis was for me, a bit like a fast food meal at an upscale restaurant. The quality was good and it tasted great, but it left one wanting something a bit more satisfying. Rev. Ellis is obviously a deeply spiritual thinker and leader and appears to be pursuing a Spirit-led life, along with inspiring others to do the same. That is what this book is all about, but somehow the way it was written gives one glimpses through the picket fence as one passes, without giving a complete vision of what is possible and how to reach it. I suppose that is the point, to let one "work out their own salvation with fear and trembling", KJV. I recommend this author and book. The one-star downgrade was for overall cohesion of the book, versus the vision stated at the beginning

Bethania Perkins saysLife changing

This book is for everyone and anyone seeking to draw closer to God. The anointing and power of our Mighty King flows from it.
