Sinful Intent C.M. Steele

The room freezes as their eyes connect. Hearts racing, thoughts run wild as the predator eyes his prey. And like a flash in a bottle, it's over. The blonde beauty makes her escape from him while Dean gives chase. Will he catch his elusive beauty before she's fled the gala?

She can't believe she's falling for her boss. In a panic, she flees before he can stake the claim he had dancing in his honey-colored eyes. She has to quit, but when she sees her boss again that momentary attraction's gone. Confused and worried about her career, Nancy is ready to run when in walks a sexy surprise...a twin.

This is exactly what I needed after a long holiday weekend.

Dean was deliciously OTT possessive. One look at Nancy and he knew she would be his.

Nancy tried to deny things at the beginning. Not that she was able to hold off long. And I mean her resistance lasted minutes. But that was only because she thought she was lustng after her boss when she never even felt a spark the whole time she's worked for him.

This is sweet, fast paced, full of Insta-goodness and sexy times.

4 big stars!

When Dean first saw Nancy, he knew immediately she was the one for him. When Nancy lays eyes on Dean, she panicked and ran, thinking Dean is James, her boss. Once they actually meet, let the fireworks begin. It's all intense chemistry and a beautiful romance that is underway. Nancy and Dean are a perfect match- Ms. Sassy and Alpha Male...oh wow. I loved every moment of their steamy romance and I look forward to read more in this series.

My Rating: 4.7 stars *****

"I received an advanced copy of this book from the author at no cost to me."

Nancy notices an electric current in the air at the gala she's attending for her job, and it leads her to a man that looks like he's experiencing it too. Nancy, scared of what it could mean, runs. Why? Because it's her boss, and they've only ever been professional with one another, and that's how they prefer it. So what changed?

Dean hates attending parties, but as an Assistant District Attorney, and because his mom expects it, he goes. However, this time is different because he knows he's met the one for him. Well, he saw her at least. She disappeared before they could officially meet. He spends the next week trying to discover who she is, only to unexpectedly find her in his brother's office.

Nancy can't figure out why things seem like the same as usual at work, but she's happy they are. She didn't want to quit, but she would have. Thankfully, she doesn't because her boss has a late visitor...his identical twin brother.

Dean is relieved he found her again, Nancy is because the man eyeing her like she was the greatest treasure wasn't her boss.

As Dean and Nancy begin their relationship, a rapidly moving one, Dean must contend with her overprotective *cough cough and overbearing* older brothers, all four of them. While Nancy must prove to them once and for all that she's an adult and can make her own decisions.

What happens when fate hits when you least expect it? How will Nancy's family react to her at warp speed relationship with Dean? Is a HEA possible? Will we get stories for Nancy's brothers? And Dean and Nancy's kids? As well as James and Hailey's (see Stalk Me Please for their story)? I really hope so.

One-click now and follow along as love hits instantly and changes two lives forever.

OTT alpha!

I love an OTT alpha. Dean was bossy, alpha and was instantly head over heels for Nancy.

- no cheating
- no ow/om drama
- no violence
- instalove

-great epilogues

Roanne Germaine says

SINFUL INTENT is a sexy instalove romance that started as a mistaken identity, as Nancy thought her boss was showing interest in her, but it turned out that the one who showed sinful intent towards her was his identical twin brother, Dean! This book was absolutely delightful! Loved it!

I have received and read an advanced copy of this book and this is a fair and honest recommendation voluntarily shared.

Good

This was an enjoyable, quick and sexy Insta love story. Dean was a deliciously OTT alpha male that knew the moment he saw Nancy she was it for him. Nancy was thrown for a loop because she didn't know her boss had a twin and panicked when she thought it was him giving her a very lustful look at a charity event. The two have explosive chemistry together when things get sorted out. I love C.M. Steele and can't wait for her next book!

Bookloverme says

This was a very enjoyable read. OTT hero like his brother and perfect epilogue! I love C.M. Steele's epilogues.

The story is about Dean and Nancy.

He's James' (Stalk Me Please H) twin brother. He's an assistant district attorney and she works for James as his assistant.

She went to the gala and when she saw James, she felt something and she can't believe she's falling for him so she ran away from him.

She was confused that the next time she saw him, her interest in him disappeared until someone walked in James' office and she realized who she saw at the gala was not James but his twin brother, Dean.

He's been looking for her everywhere and all this time, she's at his brother's office.

I loved how possessive these twin brothers were when it comes to the women they love.

And it has perfect epilogue! (view spoiler)

I've been waiting for Dean & Nancy's story to come out ever since we found out we were getting their story, announced by our amazing author, C.M. Steele when Dean's twin brother, James got his happily ever after with his woman, Hadley in "Stalk Me, Please" and we already saw that Dean & Nancy were together, happy and pregnant and still very possessive of his wife. It seems to run in the family men too because their father is still the same way with their mother after so many years together :) <3 In James's story we already saw glimpses of Nancy's sassiness and Dean's possessiveness and protectiveness and passion for his wife as well ;)

Now, we get their full story, this occurs before James finally decides to claim his Hadley ;) I loved Nancy's character. She was young but mature, wanted to be independent, was responsible and focused, and innocent in the carnal pleasures sense since she has three older over-protective brothers; well until she meets Dean, it was actually quite funny at first because she had no idea that James had a twin brother because he never mentioned it so when he invites her to a gala, which she's never been to one either, they have no interest in each other by the way, but everyone else seems to think otherwise only because he invited her to the gala, but anyways, at one point Dean and Nancy see each other and she's flabbergasted by the hunger she suddenly sees in Dean when she thinks is James and a week later she was about to quit because she felt uncomfortable until... Dean shows up, haggard and desperate to find his woman and viola, they meet. Dean's overjoyed in between other emotions like jealousy over his twin brother but Nancy immediately reassures him that's definitely not the case, the progression into their relationship and Dean's claiming is pretty fast ;)

We also get more of Nancy's family background and the reason why her family is so overprotective of her apart from her being the youngest of the family and I felt sad for what her mom has been through but she had to let Nancy live her life; that's all I'm saying about that, no spoiling anymore so go read this, you won't regret it :)... Also, Dean lets everyone in her family know that he wasn't giving her up and all he wanted was for her to feel loved, be happy and safe and Nancy stood by her man in that time and I loved that <3;

I loved their chemistry together and their instant connection that hit them hard, being strangers, some would find it difficult to see them accept each other so easily but to Dean & Nancy it didn't matter because they knew in their heart, that they were meant to be together and it felt right <3

I really loved the epilogues <3<3 We got to see so much of their future together and their beautiful and big family and how protective Dean was with his children and wife, but also still very in love with Nancy and still hot and possessive as ever with his woman ;)

M.K. says

Dean and Nancy are so perfect. This story was amazing. Dean is James' twin, who is Nancy's boss. An absolute must read about the obsessive love these two have.
