Bound to Secrets by Nina Croft

A Paranormal Romance Suspense

It looks like this is the last of this series. Maybe sometime in the future she will add more books to it.

I really enjoyed all 3 books. They were full of suspense and action (Which is a must for me!). There is also adult level hot and sexy romance.

While there are a couple of areas that leave room for improvement, the majority is fantastic. They all read easily and quickly. The characters and their world are very interesting.

Barbara Strickland says

Enjoyable

This was easy to read but did lack depth in the relationship and did not involve the reader as much as it could have.

Shurrrn says

Not a bad way to finish out the Trilogy, though I have a feeling that there will be a fourth book in the future of this franchise.

One of the things I enjoyed about this particular piece of Werewolf fiction was that once a human goes through “the change” The story does not end. All too often, the transition from human to creature is the cap on the end of the series to signal the HEA. This is not the case for this series, and I appreciate that.

The third book in the series didn’t have the most quotable moments, but it did have a heroine with Head Explody... Which was a new one for me (outside of the JTHM Graphic Novels, anyway)...

3rd book good

All three books were good, and I enjoyed them. I must say that there was a definite predictability to the books. Especially after the second one.

Synopsis (from Goodreads): Six years ago, an attack by a rogue werewolf plunged Doctor Connor McNair's perfect life into nightmare. Now the mere scent of blood awakens the beast within him. He's teetering on the brink of self-destruction when an intriguing rumor leads him to the desolation of Rannoch Moor and the one woman who might call him back from the darkness. Part of a telepathic experiment that went dangerously wrong, Keira's mind will destroy anyone who gets too close. Unable to control her powers, she has cut herself off from all human contact and found a measure of peace hiding on the moors with only the wild animals for company. Until Connor arrives, awakening hopes and desires buried deep inside her. Connor is determined to save her, but some wounds are beyond the powers of a doctor to heal and time is running out, because Keira's mind holds secrets that certain people would kill to keep hidden...

I think Bound to Secrets is my favourite of the series, and I felt that I saw a lot more of the action that is present in other of Croft's books in this one as opposed to the other two. However I also couldn't help but feel (or maybe hope is more accurate!) that there will be more to this series! I know I still have questions!

While the events in Bound to Secrets are stand alone for the most part, the full affect is better if you've read the previous books Bound to Night (Tasha's story) and Bound to Moonlight (Anya's story). There may be minor spoilers within my review.

Keira certainly came with her own set of baggage. All three of the sisters had their own troubles stemming from the Agency, but Keira seemed to be the most enlightened about their activities. She also seemed to be the one most affected by what had been done to her.

Connor was a minor character in the first two books, and as such I had a vague sense of him going into Bound to Secrets. He seemed like a decent guy but the broody kind of wolf as opposed to one that owned who he was (like Sebastian in the previous books). This one really brought him into his own though and it felt like his story as much as Keira's.

The relationship between Keira and Connor did grow through the book, even if it was an almost instant trust between the two of them. As this was a novella you do expect the love side of things to go faster anyway though!

This was a good read, and I do hope there is more to come from the series!

Living this series. So good. Hope there is more

Another good tale though with the ending, I wonder if Nina Croft will continue the story. It didn't feel completely finished.

Bound to Secrets , was just as great as the two other Sisters Of The Moon books before it. I really don't know what else to say expect this is an awesome story with vampires, werewolves, telepaths, love and a little lust, secrets, assassins, a few funny things and a bit more after that in it. I really enjoyed this series and although this seems like the last book in Sisters Of The Moon stories, it doesn't feel like it is and I hope it isn't as well. Until then to Nina Croft I say keep on writing... and could you maybe do at least one more Sisters Of The Moon book, please? I've really loved them and like I said it doesn't feel like the series is over just yet...

Linda says

Good conclusion to the trilogy. I admit I didn't give Connor much thought in the earlier books, so this was a surprise. However, I did come to like him. He isn't easy going like Sebastian or cool like Jack, but after meeting Keira and realizing he didn't have to be a monster, that life could definitely be worse, he grew into his own. And poor Keira. Definitely had it the worst of the sisters. Unable to be around others without unintentionally hurting them meant a very solitary existence. Until Connor came along and held out the hope that her sisters, the ones she never knew about, their mates, and he would do their best to help her before the Agency found her again. Like the other books, I liked Keira. She was so much like Tasha it was hard not to.

Like the other books, there is sexual content so would not recommend for anyone under 18, but if you like paranormal books, like the others in the series, this is a quick read and entertaining.

Bound to Secrets (Sisters Of The Moon #3) by Nina Croft

Doctor Connor McNair six years ago, an attack by a rogue werewolf plunged his perfect life into chaos. Now he is a werewolf and the mere scent of blood awakens the beast within him. He's sent to track a rumor in Rannoch Moor and finds the one woman who might call him back from the darkness.

Keira's telepathic and unable to control her powers. She was created as an experiment, caged abused and sentenced to termination. Her surrogate mother helps her escape the "Agency". She faces her own darkness and Conner is the only one who can help.

Bravo! A good fast read! now i am hooked. This was such a great, easy and creative book. i was hooked after the first page.

The characters were easy to fall in love with and follow, along with the story. the author made the mental visions so easy and vivid of the surroundings and the characters actions felt so real.

i would highly recommend this author and this book.

Clarke says

3.7 stars. This is the best one out of the series. The situation is different and the story adds a few twists and turns. Can be read as a standalone. If you like pnr, werewolves, and wild powers this book is for you.
