Jewels ♥ My Devastating Reads says

Pretty much what I expected from this novel. Very formulaic-- hurt girl meets man too good to be true after being jilted the day before her wedding. Man too good to be true falls for her instantly and moves heaven and earth to keep her from brooding-- and at his side. She falls hard, her ex decides he wants her back and man too good to be true steps back to let her decide thus making her confess all her feelings for him-- but not, of course before us simple readers fear they might not get together after all. Naturally they do and it's all happily ever after. Finis!

What I liked about this was although our hero really was too good to be true, that it was a sweet story. Straight forward and simple but it reminds us that relationships aren't easy and that love isn't as cut and dry as often think.

Damsel in distress...but really good to have around in an emergency. And in everyday life. Caretaker hero. Competent mountain rescue and medical personnel. What's not to love?
