Anna says

This book actually surprised me somewhat. Nothing in this book was what it seemed. The ending pulled a twist that was a pleasant surprise. I'm trying not to give anything away, but the only character that is what she seems to be is the female lead character. All the other characters turn out to be something totally different towards the end of the book. There are a few things left unanswered but they do not detract from the overall storyline.

This book kept me interested all the way through to the end.

Received this as an ARC COPY for honest review.

Oh Victoria what have you done. Can you resist Vincent. So much money!! what to do with it. Clarissa what a selfish devious woman. So many lies. A kiss that's all it takes and will Clarissa spoil this moment between Vincent and Victoria. oh yes big time. Blackmail is awful but when meeting at clarissa's work place using the lift all I can think of is "what is it about elevators".

Victoria needs to trust Vincent. Brilliant stuff roll on book 3

Nikki Sciarrino says

I admit it, I am intrigued! I know that I will have to buy the next books in the series.

I have to know what happens with Vincent and I have to know if the prototype will ever get made.

I NEED to know who Clarissa really is and what she is up to!

AND most importantly, I need to know if Victoria will allow herself to fall for Vincent!

"I received this ARC in return for an honest review."

Summary

A practical joke gone awry. Victoria wants an investor to take her invention seriously. Vincent received a racy proposal through a video and text message from Victoria's friend Clarissa. Ten thousand dollars for a pair of panties. Vincent is a pervert for purchasing Victoria's panties. Sexual chemistry between Victoria and Vincent heat up.....who will walk away unscathed?

Kristina Curtis says

I would like to read more to see what happens.

Radd Reader says

Story ends with cliffhanger.

Victoria needs money and ends up putting her underwear up for sale. Vincent purchases them for $10,000 and then actually purchases more. Not sure what reality they live in, but it's not my world so it was hard to imagine someone willing to pay that kind of money for some previously worn underwear. So, unfortunately I just couldn't buy into the plot. The story was choppy. Victoria was too gullible and didn't really have a backbone. I didn't connect with either character and won't continue the series.

Fantastic but I need more :-)

Victoria has had enough with everything ..so..she goes home. Maybe some peace. Meeting Will an old ex surprisingly, who seems to good to be true. Vincent follows to her hometown for different reasons not knowing she is there. Well light the blue touch paper as they say..The fireworks are about to begin. Will has secrets now exposed but so does Vincent. who would have thought :-) Just loved it. what a shock at the end though...now I definitely need even more.. Fantastic story and hot.

Omg it's hot in here!!! Victoria and Vincent. Such chemistry. Victoria needs a job and money but when her boss shows pictures of her on his phone it's such a shock. How did those photos get there? She is selling her panties for money. She has a good business sense and brain to get a project going but cash is needed. What will Vincent decide ..good business sense..sexy panties or both. This was so hot to read I almost forgot to breathe at times ha ha. phew. Loved it
