Barbara Peña says

I did love this book and found it extremely helpful and informative. There are numerous miracle stories throughout, but I was looking for a bit more direct information about Archangel Michael. Still, this is one of those books that shores you up in times of need.

This book is magical. I had a great blessing just after reading it. Michael the Fiery Archangel is a beloved and loving Being that watches out for everyone: all one has to do is ASK for help or guidance! Thank you Archangel Michael, with all my Love.

This is my first angelic book and the first read from Doreen Virtue. I love the way it is written, it feels like the book introduces you to something so pure and that too with real life incidents. In my opinion, those incident lets you know the way in which you can get the most out of this book. Worth the time I put into it. Hoping to read other works of Doreen Virtue, soon.

It was a real joy reading this book. Archangel Michael is one of my Protectors and I smile each time I read stories related to him. The book itself didn't really taught me anything new about Michael but its the kind of book that I would definitely re-read at any time.

The only thing that didn't come out of this book that I expected was more insight into the way Archangel Michael has always been and more about his past. But I'm guessing that was for another book. I really enjoyed this one I couldn't put it down I could even feel Michael's presence in a way while I was reading it! like this warm feeling of satisfaction coming from Him. Yes, Michael, I love you so much I just had to know more about you. :) This book is filled with stories people have shared referencing to simply inviting Archangel Michael into their lives and asking him for help. I do believe Michael is definitely amazing in everything he does and I believe he will always be at my side :)

Unless we close our eyes, we won't be able to see, and unless we become quiet, we won't be able to listen.

(The context here is meditation)

We can't neglect the numbers, can we?

This review is an attempt to put forward a (unsettled and notably subjective) correlation of two tangentially different domains – digits & spirituality, based on a personal occurrence that led to the book.

It is a foggy recollection; I think it was August of 2015. I was driving to the office when my sight momentarily shifted from the road to the speedometer, to check the fuel level. The digital clock displayed 3:33. Business as usual for night shift corporate scavengers.

Two weeks later, same month, on a rainy evening, I was on a treadmill, trying hard to continue after thirty minutes of jogging. Tired, I couldn't go further and pressed the emergency button before getting off the machine. The number 33:3 re-appeared, this time on the treadmill dashboard. The emergency stop happened exactly at that point.

It was not a big deal till then, and it had all disappeared into the oblivion of my sub consciousness. But a month later, it showed up again. This time, overpowering me to make a careful note of it – the only parking slot available in the mall, behind a white Audi with the number plate 333. I stood there for some time, trying to interpret what was going on – strokes of higher planes?

Miracles of Archangel Michael book was passed on to me by a yoga teacher. She heard me patiently without reacting, without concluding and without questioning (I guess my intelligence). She encouraged me to research the (Angelic) numbers and the messages they contained and produced when the time was ripe.

Book Review

Doreen Virtue is an artistic writer. She is a peddler of hope and compassion. Her books are meant for masses – full of hope, power, and light. They include motivational short stories from real people who in some form or the other, have experienced divine connect through messengers.

The book authenticates the presence of Archangel Michael – a mighty and powerful messenger of God who helps those who call upon him. Doreen explains ways in which the messenger can bring harmony to people. The book includes fascinating true stories of how Michael has protected people while driving, guided their careers, safeguarded their children.

Ending Remarks

Faith is a big thing.

We know it, we acknowledge it – that there is a super power at work, it is beyond the realms of physical limitations. If you are looking for positive reinforcement in life, this one is a good read.

As far as the numbers are concerned, I would urge readers to find out about Pi and learn how deeply it governs us and our circumstances. Do let me know your thoughts and feedback. Also, look out for Purple color! ?

Cheers!

Emma Crane says

I've worked with the angels, especially Archangel Michael since I was 16 and I'm very on the fence in what Doreen Virtue claims, as much as I enjoy this book and the stories, Doreen to me treats and describes the angels as genies and they fulfill everything we ask of them and sounds as those they babysit us which isn't 100% true. Sometimes we experience negative situations as part of a lesson or something we didn't learn in a past life and it's followed us to our current life so the angels cannot and will not intervene because those lesson(s) are needed to be learned for a good and valid reason.

Make a point also, Archangel Michael is not a mechanic and neither does he fix electrical equipment, I've learned from them first hand, if we are meant to have a working car, then by all means we will and that applies to everything we want, if we are meant to have it, we will, if not, well you get the picture.

Kimberly Craft says

There are some really inspiring stories in this book as well as helpful advice for contacting and speaking directly with Archangel Michael. Whether you believe or not, the angels are always with us ready to lend a helping hand. All you have to do is ask! They will never interfere with free will, but they are always willing and able to support and guide us when we need it the most. Talk with your angels often! They will never disappoint if you are open to receiving their love and assistance!

Shell says

I've learned that Archangel Michael is an amazing Angelic Being. He works with mechanics and technology. Call on him for Divine protection, and to fix anything. His powerful shield and sword can protect you and cut away toxic cords that you receive from other people. He's my personal body guard.
