A must read for believers

There are so many wonderful prayers in this book. It is an eye opener to all the things that we possess in Christ. If you believe in spiritual warfare this book is a must for you.

Gerald says

Great great book. This is prayer book at its best! 95% of the prayers shared in this book are based off the Bible. Love love loved it.

I will using this as reference whenever I have a need for doing some spiritual warfare.

Good resource for deliverance ministers.

Christopher Lewis Kozoriz says

"Take responsibility for your life. Don't depend on everyone else for your spiritual well-being. Confess the Word over your life. Pray strong prayers that rout the enemy. Do not allow self-pity to hold you back. Stir yourself up to prayer. This is a key to an overcoming life. (John Eckhardt, Prayers That Rout Demon, Page 81)

Demons are real and they can operate in our life. They may cause sickness, pain, disease... Our modern day psychologists will not admit this and will explain away any spiritual connection to the maladies that we face. Demons are real and during Jesus 33 years on this earth, He confronted demons and cast them out (See Luke 11:20). He also gave us, His disciples, the power to tread on these serpents and scorpions and overcome all the power of the enemy (See Luke 10:19).

The prayers in this book are prayers to rout out demons. They will help you cast out demons in every area that you could think of that demons may have gained illegal or legal entry. The key before you cast out demons is to confess any known sin to God and He will forgive you and cleanse you from all unrighteousness (See 1 John 1:9). This goes for casting out demons in other people. Repentance is the first key or else the demon can come back even stronger (See Matthew 12:45).

Pray these prayers with confidence and lock the bad and unlock the good in your life. Amen.

Cyndi Beane-Henry says

I was expecting a book that would literally offer me some prayer guidance for my church. Instead, I was given one page that had ANYTHING to do with demons.

The author decides that all ills in life, no matter what they are, are simply caused by demons. From a flat tire, to an ingrown toenail! And offers a long list of Scriptures to use as prayers.

I could not take the author seriously. It seemed he simply took a concordance, looked up different problems: Anger; Abuse; etc., and copied down the Scriptures that each of these offered in mentioning!

Sincerely, my grandson could have given just as much information without even a try. He's 12 years old.

I was very disappointed. The book was promised to offer help and guidance for those who felt that demons were interfering in their lives. Instead, I received nothing more than a concordance with some half-hearted attempts at locating Scriptures. The author did at least write out each Scripture verse, and didn't just list a source.

I do not recommend it. Use your concordance if you must, don't invest in another, cheaper, poorer version.

Emily says

I listen to this book on YouTube while driving. 90% of the book is praying the Scriptures and that is incredibly powerful. The other 10% where he goes a little beyond scripture is where he loses me at times.

Karen says

Great tool for prayer, for praying the Word of God. Used in our intercessors prayer meeting weekly.

Gladys Whitfield says

I have read this book and I still read it as of today. I see there are some Idiots or None Believers that Mock Jesus and the Word of God. Don't be surprise if you have something go wrong in your life and believe me you will be on your Knees calling on Jesus. To save your behind from Satan. I am talking about that Alfonso guy. You don't know the Word of God and you don't know how to so Warfare Prayer , you are probably getting attacked right now in your mind. Jesus will always have the Victory of you and any demonic force. I give him all the Praise, Honor and Glory. One day when you none believers die you will see who is King of King and Lord of Lord.

Donna says

Many Christians have been naively ignorant of the supernatural attacks against them from Satanic sources. Many choose to believe that demons do not exist or that Satan does not attack in today's world.

They may choose to believe whatever they want, but I prefer to believe what is in the Bible. If Jesus acknowledged the existence of demons and Satan and dealt with them by casting out demons and telling Satan to get behind Him, then I prefer to go that route than to deny their existence.

As a result, my prayers are more powerful and successful.

But, as always, there is a method to follow that works, and it should be based on Scriptures. If not, you could end up like the sons of Sceva, being terrorized by the very demons that you want to cast out (Acts 19:11-20).

John Eckhardt uses a Scriptural basis to identify and deal with demons.

A warning to all, make sure that you are in the situation that you should be with God so that this power is available to you, rather than being in a situation like the sons of Sceva.

This is not a book to read and follow unless you have met the spiritual pre-conditions. Be born again and filled with the Holy Spirit and in a right relationship with God, or do not attempt to use these prayers.

And always, do not use these prayers in any situation unless the Holy Spirit confirms this in your heart before you begin.

If you use a hammer to drill a hole, you will do more harm than good. Select your prayer according to the task with the direction of the Holy Spirit.

For example, there are people who go into battles into which God has not called them. They use the correct "words" and follow the correct "procedures" but they are in a battle in which God has not given them authority. He has chosen others who are more qualified for the battle. As a result, they are defeated and confused because they thought they were fighting a battle for God.

Just as a soldier cannot choose his battle and go ahead without leadership or supplies, a Christian cannot go into a fight for which God has not called him and then expect to win.

A good general directs his fight to the battles that he can win, not the ones that he is destined to lose. God is a perfect general. He has people available for each battle and each timing.

John Paul Jackson wrote an excellent book called "Needless Casualties of War" in which he described how Christians who go to fight battles that need to be fought, but for which they are not qualified or sent, end up defeated and under attack. In one book, he used an example of a church in which the women suffered from miscarriages. After they realized that some women in the church were going to Washington DC to tear down strongholds in the heavens against abortion, a fight for which God had not called them, but that brought them into enemy territory, the women repented for being in a fight to which God had not called them and a level of stronghold outside of their legal territory. Then the miscarriages stopped.

Kenneth Hagin was told that these strongholds of spiritual wickedness in heavenly places were to be dealt with by Jesus and not by him, and for him not to pray against them. But now, as more of the church is being taught how only spiritual ecclesia established by God in the courts of Heaven have the governmental authority to wrestle against these, the church is now taking on these strongholds and winning. They appear in the courts of heaven with governmental authority on earth granted by Heaven and they change the decisions of earthly governments... read or watch anything by Robert Henderson to get more information on this strategy.

As an aside, there are prophets who have stated that the deaths of both Kim Clement and John Paul Jackson were caused because they had entered into realms in which they had no authority trying to take down the spirits behind ISIS and other spirits in this realm. I am not saying that I believe this but I consider it a distinct possibility.

It is dangerous for anyone to go outside his realm of authority. Each one of us has a unique realm of authority into which we are born. When we get into business which is not ours, we often enter into witchcraft or into realms in which God cannot protect us.

We have the choice to obey God or to not obey God. But first, we must learn to hear His voice.

These principles of hearing God's specific direction and fighting only the battles into which God calls us must be understood before John Eckhardt's prayers are used.

You can cast a demon out of someone who does not want it to go. Or from someone who is not strong enough to keep it out. Luke 11:25. Then that person ends up in worse condition and you, instead of being a minister of deliverance representing God, you have been an instrument of pain and destruction.

These prayers are weapons. But like guns, they can be used by good people in harmful ways, either from ignorance or weakness.

Learn how to use these prayers properly before you use them.

Jaime Contreras says

This is a serious book about spiritual warfare. It is academic and not for the novice. There is little instruction but plenty of prayers to protect one from satan and to ward off the devil.

Mahoghani 23 says

Amazingly written and it depicts the things we should pray for ourselves, our family, our friends as well as our enemies. This book takes you into prayers that are a direct focus of where our spiritual walk should be and helps to strengthen your faith and spiritual growth. This book is divided into sections and each section focuses on different areas in our lives and helps us to understand that our prayers are conversations with God, asking him to protect, provide, conquer the devil & enemies and lift us up.

Jenell S says
